

Position Post: 9/30/14

Advertising Account Executive
Eugene/Springfield, Oregon

Bicoastal Media has a rare opening for an experienced Account Executive with a minimum of 3 years of broadcast sales experience. This is not a staff expansion opportunity. The successful candidate must be able to handle a substantial list of active agency and direct local clients. The person we are looking for is creative, self-motivated, goal oriented, up-beat, outgoing, a team player and well organized.

In addition to our four top rated radio stations, we have a full compliment of digital products including web, streaming, social media and a strong promotions department with several event sponsorship and participation opportunities. In short, we are looking for a proven broadcast sales professional who is digitally savvy and can present a wide variety of marketing solutions to our clients.

This position will not only provide for an immediate above average income, it offers the opportunity for continued growth with a great broadcast company.
